Section E: Privacy notice

The Department of Agriculture collects and uses your personal information to assess your suitability for appointment to Australian Government bodies within the Agriculture portfolio. It may also use your personal information to identify you as a potential attendee at forums, meetings and other portfolio-related events.

If you do not provide some or all of your personal information, the department may not be able to assess your application.

Under the Privacy Act 1988 (Cwlth), 'personal information' means any information or opinion about an identified, or reasonably identifiable, individual. 'Sensitive personal information' means any information or opinion about an individual's racial or ethnic origin, political opinion or association, religious beliefs or affiliations, philosophical beliefs, sexual preferences or practices, trade or professional associations and memberships, union membership, criminal record, health or genetic information and biometric information or templates.

Your personal information will be used and stored in accordance with the Australian Privacy Principles.

The Department of Agriculture may disclose your personal information to the Minister for Agriculture and ministerial staff.

The Department of Agriculture may also disclose your personal information to other Australian agencies, persons or organisations where necessary, provided the disclosure is consistent with the Privacy Act 1988 and other relevant laws.

By completing and submitting this form you consent to the collection, use and disclosure of all personal information, including sensitive personal information, in this form.

See the department's Privacy Policy to learn more about accessing or correcting personal information or making a complaint. Alternatively, telephone the department on +61 2 6272 3933.
