SECTION G: Definitions

Cattle means bovine animals other than buffalo.

Dairy cattle means bovine animals that are, or, if they were not exported from Australia, would be likely to be, held on licensed dairy premises for a purpose related to commercial milk production, including but without limiting the generality of the above, bulls, calves and replacement heifers.

Livestock means sheep, lambs and goats.

Liveweight means the weight of exported cattle described in the bill of lading, or similar document of title, facilitating the export of such cattle. Otherwise, the liveweight of the cattle is taken to be 480 kilograms per head.
