

Coronavirus in-cruise passenger announcement

This is an important health announcement from the Australian Government regarding coronavirus.

If you are feeling sick and have a fever, cough, sore throat, or are having difficulty breathing, please report to the medical centre.

On arrival, Australian Government officers will escort you to a private bus to transfer you to a hotel. You must follow their direction.

You are required to remain in the hotel in self-isolation for 14 days.

You will receive an Isolation Declaration Form. Please complete this and provide to an officer at immigration.

You are required by law to comply with these directions, and failure to do so may result in fines or imprisonment.

Do not film or take photos of any Government official.

Please visit the Department of Health's website for further information.

Thank you for your cooperation.
