Instructions

1. Exporters seeking to send livestock to Vietnam must continue to provide the department with a valid import permit and comply with any conditions therein.

2. The department recommends that exporters sending livestock consignments to seaports and airports other than those listed below check with the local seaport or airport authority, through their importer, that the consignment will be able to unload upon arrival.
 - Noi Bai, Da Nang and Tan Son Nhat International airports
 - Cai Lan (Quang Ninh), Hai Phong, Cua Lo (Nghe An), Da Nang, Quy Nhon (Binh Dinh), Cat Lai (Ho Chi Minh City) and Cai Mep (Ba Ria - Vung Tau) sea ports
3. Exporters should contact the department for assistance if an importer identifies a potential issue prior to arrival in Vietnam or the unloading of a consignment is delayed by a Vietnamese authority upon arrival in Vietnam.
