

FUTURE DROUGHT FUND FACTS

- $420m allocated to drought resilience initiatives through the FDF to date
- Multiple programs underway with 5 NEW programs announced in March 2022.

BETTER CLIMATE INFORMATION

- 2 digital tools live and being progressively enhanced to help farmers and regions understand their climate risks and resilience.
- 450 + engagement events held to facilitate co-design of the tools across 8 pilot regions.

BETTER PLANNING

- 6,550+ farmers have accessed direct support to improve business and risk management skills.
- 19 regions have drought resilience planning underway.
- 2,211 stakeholder groups and individuals engaged in the regional planning process

BETTER PRACTICES

- 8 Drought Resilience Adoption and Innovation Hubs operating (250+ Hub Members and Network Partners across Australia)
- 150 projects underway to support development, trial, demonstration, extension of drought resilience practices.
- 4 NEW programs announced building on the learnings of current programs.

BETTER PREPARED COMMUNITIES

- 93 projects and more than 750 people supported to develop leadership skills and drive locally led action to build community drought resilience.
- Development of the NEW extended and integrated program - Helping Regional Communities Prepare for Drought Initiative