

National Heritage List

2022-23 Call for Nominations

NOMINATION FORM

This is the form to nominate a place for inclusion in the National Heritage List. The National Heritage List is Australia's list of natural, historic and Indigenous places of outstanding significance to the nation.

All questions are mandatory unless otherwise stated.

Please do not modify this form.

Complete this checklist before you start the form:

- ☐ I have read the National Heritage List Nomination Guide at www.awe.gov.au/parks-heritage/heritage/publications/guide-heritage-listing-australia (further guidance is available by emailing heritage@awe.gov.au).
- ☐ The nominated place is not already in the National Heritage List at www.awe.gov.au/parks-heritage/heritage/places/national-heritage-list
- ☐ I have considered the different heritage lists and have concluded that State, Territory or Local Heritage Listing would not be more appropriate.
- ☐ If I am not the place owner, I have consulted the place owner and have attached evidence of their support of this nomination.
- ☐ If I am representing Traditional Owners/custodians or Indigenous people with rights or interests in the nominated place, I have attached evidence of free, prior and informed consent and support for this nomination, from their representative body.
- ☐ If I am not representing Traditional Owners/custodians or Indigenous people with rights or interests, I have consulted with and attached evidence of support for or consent to this nomination, from the appropriate representative body.
- ☐ I understand that only the listed values of a place are protected once the place is included in the National Heritage List (not the place itself).
- ☐ I understand that due to statutory timeframes in the EPBC Act 1999, nominations after the close date will not be considered for the 2022-23 assessment period.

Nominated Place

Question 1

Place name

Include all names that the place is known by, including any Indigenous names.

Enter the name of the nominated place.

Question 2

Place address

If there is no street address and block, describe the approximate location and its direction relative to nearby geographic features, such as mountains, roads, and towns.

Your response is limited to 1000 characters including spaces and does not support formatting.

Enter the address of the nominated place.

Question 3

Area and boundary

Describe the area using geographic features if the heritage values occur in only one part of the area. Contact the relevant local government for boundary information. If you are unsure which local government is appropriate, refer to the Australian Local Government Association's website www.alga.asn.au.

Your response is limited to 5000 characters including spaces and does not support formatting.

Describe the area and boundary of the nominated place.

Map

Attach a copy of a map with the location and boundaries of the place clearly marked. This may be from a street directory, Google Maps, or a large-scale map printed by Commonwealth or State or Territory authority. If submitting a partial photocopy showing the relevant area, mark on it the full name of the map.

Is the precise location sensitive? ☐ YES ☐ NO

If so, why?

We will keep the precise location confidential if this is sensitive (e.g. religious or sacred sites, or fragile places that may be damaged by visitors).

Where applicable, describe why the location is sensitive.

Question 5

Select all the heritage categories which apply to this nomination

Indigenous heritage ☐

Natural heritage ☐

Historic heritage ☐

List the relevant Traditional Owners or Custodians or Indigenous people with rights or interests in this place.

Do Traditional Owners or Custodians or Indigenous people with rights or interests in the place support the nomination with their free, prior and informed consent?

If you are nominating a place that Indigenous people have rights or interests in, you must attach evidence of Indigenous community free, prior and informed consent and support for the nomination. These rights or interests may be native title rights, land rights under states or territories legislation and/or management rights. Indigenous rights or interests can be verified through a Native Title representative body, a Local Aboriginal Land Council or through the land manager such as a state or territory parks agency. Nominations that are not supported with the free, prior and informed consent of Indigenous people with rights or interests in the place will not be considered.

☐ YES ☐ NO ☐ SOME SUPPORT

Question10

Who else has an interest in the place?

List the people and groups who use, manage, or have legal responsibility for the place. This could include: State or Territory government and local council, developers and industry groups, licence holders allowed to take or use the natural resources of the place, conservation groups, community groups such as historical societies, recreational users and others.

National heritage listing brings certain responsibilities This means that if an activity is proposed at a listed place an assessment may be required before the planned action can take place. More information is provided at www.awe.gov.au/environment/epbc/environment-assessment-and-approvals. It is important that you work with people and groups who use, manage, or have legal responsibility for the place and provide evidence that they support your nomination.

List the people and groups who use, manage, or have legal responsibility for the place.

Importance of the place

Refer to the National Heritage List Nomination Guide at www.awe.gov.au/parks-heritage/heritage/places/nominating-heritage-place for examples of the information and level of detail required for this section.

Question 11

Why is this place of outstanding heritage significance to Australia?

Summarise what makes this a place of "outstanding heritage value to the nation" and not just to the State, Territory or local community. Provide details demonstrating why the place is significant against Criterion at Question 12.

Your response is limited to 5000 characters including spaces and does not support formatting.

Describe why the nominated place has outstanding heritage significance to Australia.

Question12

Which criteria does the place meet?

From the nine National Heritage criteria listed below, identify each criterion that applies to the place and explain why the place meets that criterion. A place only needs to meet one criterion to be included in the National Heritage List. You do NOT need to address or make claims against every criterion. Focus on the most relevant criteria that most clearly demonstrates 'outstanding heritage value to the nation.'

Your nomination may benefit from a review of the current National Heritage List. You should identify whether the nominated place would contribute to the National Heritage List by making it a better representation of the breadth of Australia's heritage. With reference to the National Heritage criteria, compare your place with any places already on the National Heritage List with similar characteristics to demonstrate why the nominated place has outstanding heritage value to the nation.

For a nomination to be successful, you must make a strong case that this place satisfies at least one of the National Heritage criteria. Provide reference details, and if needed, attach additional information.

Criterion a. the place has outstanding heritage value to the nation because of the place's importance in the course, or pattern, of Australia's natural or cultural history

This includes places strongly linked to economic, political or social processes that tell a story important to the nation.

Does the place meet this criterion?

☐ YES ☐ NO

If you answered yes, the place meets this criterion because:

Criterion i. the place has outstanding heritage value to the nation because of the place's importance as part of Indigenous tradition

Indigenous tradition is 'the body of traditions, observances, customs and beliefs of Indigenous persons generally or of a particular group of Indigenous persons' handed down from generation to generation, by word of mouth or practice. Indigenous traditions are living and dynamic and adapt and develop through time. There must be something about the tradition that makes it unusual or exemplary at the national level. If you are nominating under this value, please ensure the appropriate Indigenous persons are made aware of this nomination.

Does the place meet this criterion?

☐ YES ☐ NO

If you answered yes, the place meets this criterion because:

Your response is limited to 5000 characters including spaces and does not support formatting.

If you answered yes, describe here why the nominated place meets this criterion.

Question 13
