National Stewardship Trading Platform

Over the past two decades, opportunities have emerged for farmers to earn money by providing environmental services related to biodiversity and carbon.

The NSTP is a single platform to help farmers participate in emerging environmental markets.

- Providing planning tools to help farmers plan and evaluate biodiversity and carbon projects.
- Connecting farmers with potential buyers in biodiversity and carbon services on the Marketplace.
- Providing easy-to-use application portals for farmers to apply to the Australian Government Agricultural Biodiversity Stewardship pilot programs.
