

Submission from NT Farmers Association – Okra from India draft risk analysis

NT Farmers and leading NT vegetable industry producers have read the draft and have no specific comments.

In general, we would expect rigorous inspections for all early consignments and swift action on any transgressions, and clear labelling on imported product.

We recommend comprehensive food safety sampling that would include wide-ranging chemical residue testing and broad biological pathogen assessments.

NT FARMERS ASSOCIATION

W: www.ntfarmers.org.au

