EXEMPTION FROM PAYING THE TEA TREE OIL LEVY

A producer of tea tree oil is exempt from paying levy if they sold tea tree oil by retail sale in a financial year and the total amount of levy that they would be liable to pay in that year is less than $25.

Retail sale in relation to tea tree oil means a sale by a producer that is not a sale to a first purchaser or through a buying agent, selling agent or exporting agent.

ANNUAL RETURNS

A producer who sells tea tree oil by retail sale and does not export tea tree oil in a half year, must lodge an annual return.

PRIVACY NOTICE

'Personal information' means any information or opinion about an identified individual, or an individual who is reasonably identifiable.

The collection of personal information by the Department of Agriculture and Water Resources (the department) in relation to this Return Form is authorised by the Primary Industries Levies and Charges Collection Act 1991 (the Act) and is for the purpose of administering the tea tree oil levy. If you do not provide the relevant personal information requested in this form, you will be in breach of the Act and the department will be required to take the relevant action.

Personal information may be disclosed to other Australian agencies, including industry bodies and levy recipient organisations, and persons or organisations where necessary for the administration of the levy, provided the disclosure is consistent with relevant laws, in particular the Privacy Act 1988.

Your personal information will be used and stored in accordance with the Australian Privacy Principles.
