Last week I wrote out a submission to in this same format and it was classed as an illegal document and it didn't get sent. I sent an email off to Mr David Armstrong and I haven't had a reply back. This follows on from my complaint that I didn't receive our voting pack for the last AWI board member elections. The question then I need an answer to is" how serious does the AWI take in resolving this communication problems that go the the heart of corporate governance?
