

There must be another solution to these live exports ... set up an abattoir in WA to slaughter animals to the Middle East standard. The meat they receive would have to be better quality. Give their slaughterers a special working visa. Transport in its current form is inhumane and uncivilised.