

AEI Quick Reference Guide

AEI format: AA1234CC

AA: Country code 1234: Company identifier CC: treatment scheme code

Treatment	Subject to BMSB measures		Methyl bromide		Sulfuryl fluoride	Gamma irradiation	Recognised Offshore Cleaning Provider Scheme used for vehicles	Khapra Beetle treatments
	Methyl Bromide/heat treatment	Sulfuryl fluoride	Registered treatment provider	Unregistered treatment provider
AEI required?	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes
AEI entry requirements	Enter treatment provider's AEI	Enter generic 'SFTREATED' AEI Enter treatment provider's AEI	Enter treatment provider's AEI as per the List of Treatment Providers .	Enter treatment provider's AEI as per the Unregistered treatment provider list . If no AEI, enter generic AEI for treatment type and country.	Enter generic 'SFTREATED' AEI And enter treatment provider's AEI as per the List of Treatment Providers or the Unregistered treatment provider list .	Enter treatment provider's AEI	Enter treatment provider's AEI. If no AEI, the field needs to remain blank.	Enter treatment provider's AEI. If no AEI, refer to the Unregistered Treatment Provider List .
Where can I find the AEI?	On the treatment certificate		On the treatment certificate or List of Treatment Providers .	On the treatment certificate or Unregistered Treatment Provider List .	On the treatment certificate	On the treatment certificate	On the recognised providers of offshore treatment of used vehicles , or the manifest endorsed by the treatment provider	On the treatment certificate for registered providers, or on the Unregistered Treatment Providers List .
Where to enter?	Enter against the first tariff line of the import declaration. Only needs to be entered once for each consignment Exception is for break bulk – where the AEI needs to be recorded against each line of target high risk goods Multiple AEIs can be recorded in the same location If under an AEPCOMM AA, enter the AEI in conjunction with the AEPCOMM code in the BMSB hitchhiker pests BICON case		Enter against first tariff line of the import declaration. This applies to both commodity and non-commodity treatments. Only needs to be entered once for each consignment Multiple AEIs can be recorded in the same location			Enter each vehicle in the consignment on a separate line. The AEI must be recorded against each line of vehicle If under an AEPCOMM AA, enter the AEI in conjunction with the AEPCOMM code in the Used vehicles BICON case		Enter against the first line of the import declaration. Only needs to be entered once for each consignment
How to enter?	Select the AEI from the list in the ICS or your third party software Company name in the second column needs to match the company name on the certificate		Select the AEI from the list in the ICS or your third party software Company name in the second column needs to match the company name on the certificate	In the AEI field search the AEI list by country code and company name to determine if the company has an AEI allocated to it. Where it has, select the AEI with the matching country code and company name Where it has not, select the generic AEI allocated to the country of the treatment provider	Select the AEI from the list in the ICS or your third party software Company name in the second column needs to match the company name on the certificate		Select the AEI from the list in the ICS or your third-party software Company name in the second column needs to match the company name on the certificate. Where the company does not have an AEI allocated to it, select the generic AEI allocated to the treatment type and country of the treatment provider.
Treatment/scheme code	SB, MB, TP		MB	MB	N/A	IR	UV	SB, MB, HT or IN
If you have concerns with the treatment certificate	Enter the AEI Enter the BCOM concern type if you have concerns about the commodity, or BNCC concern type if you have concerns about the non-commodity.		Enter the AEI Enter the BCOM concern type if you have concerns about the commodity, or BNCC concern type if you have concerns about the non-commodity.			N/A		Enter the AEI Enter the BCOM/BNCC concern type